THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF ALABAMA
EASTERN DIVISION

NC-WC LP
Plaintiff vs.
Defendants

Case No. 3:06 cv 440 WKW

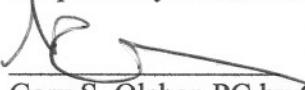

MOTION FOR TO CONTINUE 26(f) REPORT

Comes Now, Gary S. Olshan, attorney for the Plaintiff and motions this Court to continue generally the filing of the Rule 26(f) report. I have contacted all of the defendants and each has no objection to conducting the foreclosure of the subject property. The United States Department of Treasury-Internal Revenue Service (hereinafter referred to as "IRS") has filed its consent and the defendants, Melissa, Lee and Alan Fleming have been served (*Melissa Lee's acceptance attached hereto). I have spoken with each and represent that each does not object to the foreclosure by Plaintiff of the subject mortgage. David Stivarius with whom I have spoken to understood that the complaint was action for judicial foreclosure and did not object to the action. *David Stivarius was served on October 13, 2006, see attached AlaCourt printout. *In error Melissa Lee and David Stivarius were served with the summons and complaint through the State Court but not prejudiced as the service complies with Federal Civil Procedure.

This continuance is then requested as a matter of judicial economy to allow for an streamline Order of judicial foreclosure of the subject mortgage within State of Alabama statutory judicial foreclosure as per the consent entered on behalf of the IRS.

Filed simultaneously herewith is the Pro Hac Vice application of the undersigned.

Respectfully Submitted
